 <hr style="width: 20%; margin: auto;"/> Sheriff of Monroe County

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this directive is to establish policy and procedures for the issuing of equipment/uniforms and grooming standards for employees.

will be kept in the Supply / Inventory Section. The list will be updated as needed by position or classification. The Undersheriff or his designee(s) will approve this list. Any member issued equipment shall maintain that equipment.

DISCUSSION:

This directive applies to all Sheriff's Office personnel.

UNIFORMS

Members shall wear uniforms and insignia commensurate with their rank and be provided with authorized equipment. All uniformed members shall wear the complete uniform-of-the-day while on duty.

Public perception of the Sheriff's Office, as a whole, is partially based on the appearance of it's employees. The Office strives for the highest level of professionalism and as such has set attire standards to reflect that professionalism. Further the Office issues necessary equipment and uniforms to employees in appropriate positions and requires the proper care and wear of this equipment and uniforms.

Members attending court or depositions shall wear the Uniform-of-the-Day, or may wear a sports jacket and tie, or a dress suit.

POLICY AND PROCEDURE:

NO SMOKING allowed in any Agency owned/leased equipment (i.e. vehicles, vessels, bicycles, go-peds, etc.)
Revised 3/3/10

No mixture of civilian outer clothing with the official uniform shall be permitted, on or off duty, except for recognition purposes by plainclothes deputies during raids or other such emergency conditions.

Issued Equipment

Office will issue appropriate equipment for members to perform their assigned duties. The supply room clerk will maintain a current listing of what items and uniforms will be issued for each particular position. A list of equipment which is issued by the Office to each member

Uniformed members shall not wear the official uniform outside the county except when necessary to perform official duties or by special permission of the Sheriff, or a Division Commander.

Without the consent of the Sheriff, employees shall not appear in uniform or wearing any department issued hats, jackets, clothing at any function where they may create the impression they are representing the agency, they are supporting a particular individual or issue, or they should receive special consideration because of their employment. Such functions include, but are not limited to, court hearings, government proceedings, political events, and community organization events.

(Effective 8-6-2008)

While in uniform, members shall be neat and clean in personal appearance, and shall wear their uniforms with dignity and in strict conformity with rules and regulations. Deputies shall keep their uniforms clean and well pressed. Authorized metal accessories worn with the uniform shall be kept clean and bright. Shoes and leather goods shall be kept clean and shined.

When on-duty, uniformed members shall not stand or walk with hands in pockets or otherwise exhibit a posture, which detracts from a well-groomed, disciplined and an alert image.

Uniform items shall not be altered other than necessary to insure proper fit.

The only visible under-shirt allowed with the approved uniform is a white crew neck T-shirt.

Shoes that will be worn with the jumpsuits must comply with the guidelines set forth in this chapter.

Ownership of Uniform and Equipment

The ownership and title to all uniforms and equipment issued to Sheriff's personnel are vested in the Monroe County Sheriff's Office.

Sheriffs' personnel shall be held strictly accountable for the proper care, use and maintenance of all issued articles of uniform and equipment. Uniforms and equipment shall be worn and used only in accordance with the provision of this directive.

No item of uniform or equipment shall be transferred or exchanged by Sheriff's personnel without the approval of a supervisor, and only after Inventory Management has been notified of the exchange.

It shall be the duty of each Deputy to produce any article or item of issued uniform or equipment, or any other item worn or carried while on duty which affects the Deputy's appearance or performance of duty, upon demand of a supervisor.

When a Deputy resigns, retires, is discharged, is granted an extended leave of absence, or in any way vacates his/her position, the Deputy shall surrender to the Inventory Management Office all issued items of uniform and equipment. The Deputy's final paycheck may be held until all items of issued uniform or equipment are accounted for. In case of death of a Deputy, his/her commanding officer shall be responsible for the recovery of all property, keeping in mind the feelings of the deceased Deputy's family.

Deputies shall not wear any portion of the official uniform, carry a firearm, or drive an Office vehicle while under disciplinary suspension. Upon notification of suspension for disciplinary reasons, deputies shall immediately surrender badge and commission card to the supervisor who gave the notice of disciplinary suspension.

Regular Deputy uniform items, which become unsuited for continued use due to normal wear or size change may be replaced upon approval from a supervisor.

Body Armor/Protective Vest

[CALEA 41.3.5]
Revised 08/20/09

This Office issues body armor, protective vest, that meets the NIJ threat safety level IIIA to every sworn road patrol deputy and transportation deputy. This armor protects up to a 9mm round with velocities up to 1400ft/s also .44 caliber rounds, 44 magnum rounds with speeds up to 1400ft/s and requires it be worn at all times while on duty except during approved training or when a waiver is signed.

While it is the policy of this Office that the protective vest be worn at all times, the Office recognizes there are times when tropical weather conditions make wearing the vest extremely uncomfortable.

Waiver

Revised 08/20/09

If a deputy chooses not to wear the issued vest, he/she does so at his/her own risk of death or personal injury acknowledging the inherent dangers of law enforcement work. The failure to wear the issued vest may result in a denial of or reduction in workers compensation coverage for on the job injuries. The Deputy who signs a waiver is responsible for using good judgment and common sense in deciding when not to wear the protective vest.

If a deputy chooses not to wear the issued vest, the deputy must sign the Waiver: Assuming Risk or Injury or Damage form through the Human Resources Division. Additionally, on an annual basis as part of the deputy's annual evaluation, the deputy must sign an Acknowledgment of Risk.

If a deputy chooses not to wear the issued vest, he/she must have the issued vest immediately and easily available to him/her at all times while on duty.

Shall Wear Situations (With a signed waiver)

Even if a waiver is signed, Deputies shall wear the vest when responding to any call that may be potentially dangerous. If a routine call appears to turn into a potentially dangerous situation, the vest shall be put on immediately.

Deputies are also required to wear a vest while participating in preplanned high-risk operations such as:

- Execution of search or arrest warrants;
- Surveillance/stakeout;
- Arrest warrant service;
- Perimeter positions assisting SWAT or the Hostage Negotiating Team;
- Drug raids

The Deputy shall wear the vest when ordered to do so by a supervising officer.

Forced Entry Protective Vest:

Revised 08/21/09

Forced entry protective vests will be issued to deputies of the Special Operations Division that may be selected to participate in forced entry. [CALEA 41.3.6]

It will be mandatory for all entry team members to wear the forced entry protective vest on all planned forced entry warrant executions.

All deputies with a forced entry protective vest must have access to the vest while on duty. Deputies may be directed by a supervisor to wear a forced entry protective vest for other tactical purposes.

The Waiver Assuming Risk or Injury or Damage form will not apply to forced entry protective vests.

Safety is the main priority of the Office, and the Office stresses the importance of wearing the protective vest during duty hours. Deputies shall be responsible for the proper care and cleaning of the issued vest.

Protective vests will be kept clean, dry, and in good repair. Deputies will immediately notify the Uniform Supply Unit of damaged or defective vests.

Jewelry

Jewelry worn on the hands, wrists and fingers shall be limited to a wristwatch, wedding / engagement ring (or set), and one other ring (such as class, school, or organization ring).

Female deputies while in uniform, may wear plain, small, post type earrings. No more than one set of earrings may be worn. Non-certified female members may wear only two sets of earrings.

Grooming and Hairstyles

Standards for uniformed deputies apply to all uniformed personnel, certified or otherwise who perform enforcement services, i.e. Airport Security Technicians, Court Security.

Uniformed Male Deputies

Hair Styles - Hairstyles shall be conservative and evenly trimmed. The length of the hair shall not exceed one and one-half (1 ½) inches and shall be tapered proportionately along the sides and the back of the head. The hair shall not extend downward at any point more than one-half (½) inch beyond the hairline at the shirt collar at the back of the neck; or protrude onto or over the ears. Hair shall be cut and trimmed in a manner that allows proper wearing of the uniform hat.

Sideburns

Sideburns shall be uniform from top to bottom; be neatly trimmed; not to exceed one (1) inch in width; and not be excessively heavy or bushy. Sideburns shall be cut horizontally along the side of the face and approximately one-half (½) inch above the bottom of the lower ear lobe.

Facial Hair

Mustaches shall be of conventional type; be neatly trimmed; and not present a bushy unkempt appearance. A mustache shall not be more than one-fourth (¼) inch in thickness; not extend onto or over the upper lip; not extend beyond or below the corners of the mouth. Beards are prohibited.

Uniformed Female Deputies

Hair Styles

Hair shall be worn neatly in styles that do not extend below the bottom of the collar in normal posture. Longer hair may be worn in an upward sweep or bun above the top of the collar so long as it presents a neat appearance, does not straggle, and allows proper wearing of the uniform hat by female deputies.

Hair Fasteners /Fingernails

Hair clasps, barrettes, or fasteners worn while in uniform shall correspond with hair color.

Fingernails shall be of a moderate length and may be painted in a subdued color, (flesh-tone is preferred).

Plain Clothed Deputies and all Uniformed, Non-Certified Sheriff's Personnel

Hair Styles - Non-sworn members and plain clothed deputies shall maintain a neat and well-groomed appearance when on duty or representing the Sheriff's Office. Contemporary hairstyles may be worn if the general appearance serves to maintain a moderately conservative and professional image.

Facial Hair - Sideburns and mustaches worn by male plain clothed deputies and male non-certified personnel shall be neatly trimmed and shall not be excessively heavy or bushy. Mustaches shall not extend onto or over the upper lip. Beards are prohibited.

Personal Hygiene

Attention to personal hygiene is a requisite for all Sheriff's Deputies and personnel while on duty, in uniform or in the official performance of duties.

Exceptions

Deputies assigned to undercover or other such special assignments shall be exempt from the physical appearance and grooming provisions of this directive. The appropriate authority shall establish appearance and grooming standards for undercover deputies, in accordance with the special duties to be performed.

Medical variance for facial hair may be granted to personnel upon request and submission of documentation from a licensed physician.

Dress Code

It is the intent of the Sheriff that all members of the Sheriff's Office dress and act in a professional manner. Personal appearance speaks loudly in our line of business. Members should bear in mind that all belong to an Office that holds the public trust and must therefore always present a professional appearance and demeanor. Clean, neat, business attire is expected of all members who are not wearing an issued uniform.

The following guidelines shall apply to all members not wearing an issued uniform:

All attire will be suitable for the office / business environment and present a professional image.

Pants shall be of a business style and fabric.

Pants that tightly conform to the body are not acceptable for business wear.

Blouses and shirts shall be of a business style.

Tank tops, T-shirts, low-cut necklines, cut-out-backs, spaghetti strap blouses, and blouses made to tightly conform to the body are not acceptable for business wear.

Dresses and skirts shall be of a business style. They will be properly fitted to ensure a business look. All hemlines will be no shorter than three inches (3") from the bend of the back of the knee. The bodice of a dress should comply with the guideline set forth as listed under blouses.

Miniskirts are not acceptable for business wear.

Shoes shall be of a business style. The safety, assignment, and the professional appearance of the member will be considered when determining the acceptability of a member's shoes.

Heels shall be no higher than four inches (4"). Tennis/jogging type shoes and flip-flops are not acceptable business wear. Tennis/jogging type shoes may be worn, with the supervisor's permission, if necessary for the day's activities.

Jackets are optional, however, they will be worn for court appearances or other special functions when a jacket is appropriate. If a weapon is worn, it may be covered by a jacket while in public. If not covered, proper identification must be worn and visible – it is required that a badge be worn next to the weapon.

Denim/blue jean style clothing is not acceptable for business attire, but may be worn with the supervisor's approval, if necessary for the day's activities.

Supervisors shall ensure that members present a professional and business image at all times while on-duty. Anything less is unacceptable and supervisors shall be held responsible for enforcing the provisions of this General Order.

The Sheriff recognizes certain work environments and work assignments do not lend themselves to business attire. Exceptions to the above policy can be approved by the appropriate Bureau Chief.
