Police Memorial Day Ceremony tonight

Every day on the job law enforcement officers face the reality of life-threatening violence. More than 18,000 officers have been killed in America in the line of duty since 1791, and in 2005, one law enforcement officer was killed every 2.3 days while serving his or her community. Monroe County has lost seven in the last century, including Key West Police Detective John Piskator last year.

On Friday, May 18, those officers who made the supreme sacrifice will be remembered in a public Law Enforcement Memorial Day ceremony at 6 p.m. at Bayview Park. Hosted by the Key West Police Department and the Monroe County Sheriff's Office, the ceremony will include the traditional wreath laying, a gun salute, prayer, and the reading of the roll of Florida officers killed on-duty over the past year.

Special remembrance will be reserved for Monroe County Sheriff's Deputy Frank Adams, killed in 1901, Key West Police Officer Clarence Till, 1904, Sheriff's Game Warden Guy Bradley, 1905, Key West Police Officer Norman Drew, 1975, Sheriff's deputies David Cormier and Michael Alexander, 1980 and 1998 respectively, and Detective Piskator, 2006.

Everyone is encouraged to come out and join their local law enforcement officers and city officials in honoring those officers who sacrificed their lives to ensure public safety.
