Keys Cops for Kids Fishing Tournament

Keys Cops for Kids is holding its third annual Keys Kids Classic Fishing Tournament on September 8, 2007. Sgt. Dennis Coleman, who heads up the organization, has rented a boat in Islamorada to take 20 kids fishing. All kids who fish will receive a trophy and a gift bag filled with fishing tackle from Penn. There are still 10 spots available on the boat. This is a free tournament that is going to be followed by an awards ceremony and a pizza party. If you are interested in one of these openings, please contact Sgt. Coleman at dcoleman@keysso.net or Detective Michael DiGiovanni at mdigiovanni@keysso.net.

Keys Cops for kids is a private organization set up by Sgt. Coleman with the goal of raising money and holding events to benefit children. You can visit their web page at <http://www.myspace.com/keyscops>.

Benefit for the Balbuena Family

Bocce 2 Player Tournament on Saturday August 25, 2007.

For information and donations and to volunteer to help (we can use as much help to pull this together and make it a big success as we can get) please contact Barb Feinberg at 305.587.7806 or email at barbazoidart@hotmail.com

On June 22, in New York, The Frank and Sandy Balbuena family suffered a great loss due to a horrific auto accident that claimed the lives of four of their youngest family members. The car split in half when it hit a telephone pole igniting the rear of the car with three kids in the back seat. 18 month old Mary Elizabeth and her unborn sibling, along with six year Nathaneil and ten year old Tyler, were killed in this horrific accident. The mother of these children has suffered a severed pelvis, broken neck, broken back, two broken legs, ruptured lung and broken ribs. Upper arms were broken as well.

For our friends, the Balbuenas, the burial costs, hospital costs and cost of living while they try to pick up the pieces is exorbitant. As a community, it is important to support our loved ones. If we all get together and raise some funds to help in time of need for this family who has tirelessly raised monies themselves for others (AIDS HELP for example) then we can make a difference in their lives.

We are looking for donations of raffle prizes, silent auction prizes, fishing/snorkel trips, gift certificates, dinners, artwork, jewelry, theatre tickets, monetary donations would be much appreciated. Or even time to put this all together. Please spread the word.

The tournament is the Saturday after league play begins (we could all use a little practice!) and is scheduled to be a two person tournament. Should be lots of fun. We are providing a "mini Taste of Key West" style food setup for a few dollars a plate for donation. Food for that is still needed. Also a big raffle and a 50/50 raffle. Any and all appropriate prizes would be welcomed.
