Hello Red Cross Friends:

Thank you for your continuing faithfulness to the American Red Cross in the Keys. Your welcome support allows us to continue our vital work in helping the people of our community prevent, prepare for and respond to emergencies and other disasters.

In fact, we responded to a fire at a mobile home in Marathon just this week. And, as we noted the anniversary of Hurricane Wilma last week, we know that we have been fortunate this hurricane season. However, we must continue to prepare, by recruiting and training local volunteers this weekend, and expending funds to make sure that we are able to respond at every level.

Your contribution will help us maintain our ability to respond to fires, floods and other disasters and ensure that family, friends and neighbors receive the support and encouragement they need. Please consider making another contribution right away.

Right now, we're also offering several ongoing important community programs. We know that CPR and First Aid training, as well as Babysitter training for youth, are providing a service to our neighbors and friends here in the Keys in some very important ways. We continue to see an increase in the number of participants in these lifesaving programs. In fact, the NBC Today show also recently highlighted the need for everyone to be trained to save lives. You can see the clip on this website: <http://www.msnbc.msn.com/id/27242108/>

Please note that you are able to make online contributions at any time at www.FloridaKeysRedCross.org. We are continuing to see an increase in the need for our services, and are depending on friends like you every day.

You can also help when you make a hotel reservation at one of the Southernmost Resorts. See their website for the special Red Cross package. www.SouthernmostResorts.com

If you would like to be involved or would like to learn more, please don't hesitate to contact me.

On behalf of those we serve, thank you again for your generous and much-appreciated support.

Sincerely yours,
J B Hunt
Chapter Advancement Officer

Cape Air soon to fly from Marathon to Fort Myers

Cape Air as a code share carrier for Continental Airlines will soon begin scheduled air service consisting of three round-trip flights daily between Florida Keys Marathon Airport (MTH) and Southwest Florida International Airport, Fort Myers, FL (RSW) starting on December 19, 2008.

If Keys residents have friends, relatives, or business contacts on Florida's West Coast, Cape Air from Marathon is by far the most inexpensive air service in Monroe County. Cape Air fares with no connection to another Continental flight are expected to run about $90 to $100 each way. And remember, parking at the Florida Keys Marathon Airport is always free.

Also, Florida Keys Marathon Airport (MTH) provides a gateway to the Florida Keys through Southwest Florida International Airport (RSW), as well as from the Florida Keys through RSW to numerous other destinations nationally.

Residents of the Florida Keys have long become too used to driving and flying from Miami and Fort Lauderdale. Similarly, the "fly-drive" segment of visitors to the Florida Keys – those that fly into Miami or Fort Lauderdale and drive the rest of the way, face the natural constriction of a mostly two-lane highway that accommodates almost 3 million visitors each year. Clearly, additional access must be developed for residents and to maintain and expand the tourist industry on which the Keys depends. That new gateway is the Florida Keys Marathon Airport through RSW.

Former Civil Deputy Charles W. "Chuck" Harris Jr.

Charles "Chuck" W. Harris, Jr., 72, of Ormond Beach, FL, died Sunday, October 19, 2008 at Kindred Hospital in Green Cove Springs, FL. He was born in Cumberland, MD, moved to Monroe County, FL and was a retired Deputy Sheriff for Monroe County. Chuck, a Marine Corps veteran, moved to this area in 2000. Chuck was a member of the Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite and Amran Shrine. He was married to his wife, Donnia, for 50 years. They have two sons, Gregory Harris, of Ormond Beach and David Harris of Marathon, FL; and two adopted daughters, Jennifer Riese and Melissa Harris, both of Ormond Beach. He had one sister, Wanda Nave of LaVale, MD. Other survivors include his grandson, Zachary Harris of Ormond Beach. A graveside service was held Saturday, October 25, 2008. Memorial donations may be made to the American Heart Association.
